INSPIRED BY A TRUE FRIENDSHIP

GREEN BOOK

A black pianist, going to a rudely discerning southern tour, found a rude white man to be a driver.

In the process of driving south, the two very different people constantly contradicted each other, causing a lot of quarrels and jokes. But when they need each other most, they will tide over the difficulties together. At the end of the trip, the two also slowly put down their prejudice...

Marcel Proust was a French novelist, critic, and essayist best known for his monumental novel À la recherche du temps perdu (in Search of lost time). He is a complete loser. He has never worked in his life, spent 20 years writing a novel that no one saw, until he passed away to become a great writer.

Looking back at life in his later years, he found that the hard days are the best time of his life, and the happy days are all wasteful.
